

Gen Y – The Pathway to Success

Program Outline

Overview

Gen Y is a different kettle of fish; everybody knows it, but not many talk about it. In this session, pitched to the Gen Y contingent, we look at those distinguishing features that separate them from previous generational groups and provide ways to leverage these differences to everyone's benefit.

The purpose is to provide Gen Y's a practical understanding of what will be expected of them and what they need to know to succeed in today's workplace.

Topics

- Understanding generational differences
- Bridging the generational gaps
- Working with X's and Boomers
- An overview of Emotional Intelligence
- Feedback – both giving and receiving
- Plotting your path to success

Outcomes

- A deeper understanding of the differences between the generational groups present at work
- A greater awareness of how others perceive Gen Y and why this is relevant to your success
- Shows deeper awareness of how current habits and behaviours impact others around you
- Action plan for setting yourself up to succeed
